

Friday, January 16
Time	Speaker	Speaker's Title	Title of Presentation
1:15-2:15	Randy McCormick	Environmental Manager, Rookery Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve	Birding Basics: Binoculars and Field Guides
2:30-3:30	Annisa Karim	Environmental Specialist with Collier County's Conservation Collier program	The Relationship Between Tropical Hardwood Hammocks and the Birds that Rely on Them: A Conservation Perspective
3:45-4:45	Ted Below	Ornithologist, Rookery Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve	Double-crested Cormorant: Black Goose, Crow Duck
7:00-8:00	Bob Montanaro	Volunteer, Pelican Island and Archie Carr National Wildlife Refuge and Founder of OspreyWatch	Ospreys of Pelican Island: An Exploration into the Life of the Fish Hawk
Saturday, January 17
12:00-1:00	Dr. Jerry Jackson	Professor of Ecological Sciences, Florida Gulf Coast University	What's for Lunch? What Birds Eat: When, Why, and How
1:15-2:15	Mike Malloy	Collier County UF/IFAS Extension, FYN	Butterflies of Southwest Florida
2:30-3:30	Lynda White	Project EagleWatch Coordinator, Audubon Center for Birds of Prey	Project EagleWatch
3:45-4:45	Larry Richardson	Supervisory Wildlife Biologist, US Fish and Wildlife Service	Southwest Florida's Best Kept Secret: Wetlands, Wilderness, and Wildlife in the Florida Panther and Ten Thousand Islands National Wildlife Refuges
Sunday, January 18
12:00-1:00	Charlette Roman	Marco Island	The Magic of Tigertail
1:15-2:15	Marty Main, PhD	Professor, Wildlife Ecologist & Conservation, University of Florida	Coyotes in Florida - the Good, the Bad, & the Ugly"
2:30-3:30	Mark Renz	Professional fossil-hunting guide, lecturer and author of books including "Fossiling In Florida" (University Press of Florida).	Florida Time Forgot