

2009 Ecotour Provider Series

Southwest Florida Ecology...Past Present and Future

Ethnobotany and Wetlands

Held at the Lee County Parks and Recreation Support Services Facility at Rutenberg Park
6490 South Point Blvd, Ft. Myers, FL

July 14, 2009

Agenda

- 6:00 p.m. Arrival
- 6:05 Welcome, Introductions & Series Overview
John Kiseda, Environmental Education Program Coordinator
Lee County Parks & Recreation
- 6:20 Function, Purpose and Value of Wetland Plants
Chad Washburn, Natural Area Manager, Naples Botanical Garden
- 7:00 Break
- 7:20 Ethnobotany
Dick Workman, Florida Native Plant Society
- 8:00 Wrap Up & Evaluation
- 8:30 p.m. Departure

